Honoring Horses as Healers

Equine partnered bodywork for wellness with horse and human

Through exercises, discussion and hands on work with your horse, or one of mine:

- Listen to and read the body's energy and responses to light touch
- Practice preparing ourselves to be a bodywork partner with our horse
- Read the horse's space limits, ask for permission.
- Read the horse to stay under their brace by managing our actions, emotions and intent. This technique is different than horsemanship.
- Become familiar with an introduction to a system of healing and wellness that has been in practice for 5,000 years
- We'll discuss some brain science and equine anatomy too! Cool stuff!
- You will leave with bodywork skills to work with your horse. As you practice - you will achieve awareness of your horses health, discover deeper connection and balanced wellbeing for partnership.

Horses as Healers - Honoring Their Gifts

Participants will experience horses as healers with Brenda Westwood of Horse Sense Healing.

Brenda partners with horses using the powerful
Equine Gestalt Coaching Method
and will assist participants in exploring what holds them back from being the human their horse wants them to be.

We will look within and have the opportunity to truly honor horses.
